

Swentec, the Swedish Environmental Technology Council, is commissioned by the government to develop an effective national structure to increase the growth of Swedish cleantech.

The Swedish cleantech vision

Sweden plays a driving role and delivers world-leading solutions for a sustainable future.

Overall strategic areas for reaching the vision

Political control

Competence in sustainable development

Cooperation

Business models

The Swedish cleantech vision

Sweden plays a driving role and delivers world-leading solutions for a sustainable future.